

INDICATIONS TODAY MAY TURN OUT V-J DAY

Destroy Or Damage 711 Jap Planes

U. S. And British Fleets Presumed Idle Second Day

By MURLIN SPENCER
GUAM, Sunday, Aug. 12. (P)—While American and British fleets presumably stood idle off Japan for the second day, Admiral Nimitz announced today that their carrier planes Thursday and Friday destroyed or damaged 711 enemy planes and 94 ships in what may have been the last big air strike of the war.

Failure of the powerful forces under Admiral Halsey to attack during the current negotiations over Japan's expressed willingness to surrender were declared to be still according to previous plans and not influenced by the peace effort.

Nimitz issued a communique making a final report of the air strikes of Thursday and Friday against northern Honshu from Yokohama to the northern tip of the island.

Smashing into such hitherto undamaged air bases as Mamurogawa and Obanzawa, the ports of Onagawa and Okachi Bay, and the inland cities of Masuda, Iwaki, Koriyama, Matsushima and Shioyama, planes of the combined fleets found good hunting.

Sink 35 Vessels
Nimitz' communique increased the previously announced bag of planes by 188 and placed the two-day toll of ships at 35 sunk and 59 damaged. These included seven destroyers or destroyer-escorts sunk and seven more damaged.

The other shipping hit ranged from luggers to merchantmen. So closely were the British and American fliers working together that they were credited jointly with sinking one destroyer, three destroyer-escorts and damaging a freighter.

Allied losses, disclosed for the first time, were listed as seven American aircraft, with six pilots and air crewmen, and seven British planes, with five pilots.

Today's communique made these additions for Friday to the score for American planes:

Enemy planes—62 destroyed on the ground; 76 damaged.

Enemy ships—a destroyer, four cargo and four luggers sunk; a destroyer, 10 cargo vessels, two ferries and nine luggers damaged.

Ground installations—three freight cars destroyed; seven locomotives and 15 railroad cars damaged.

These were the additional Friday scores credited to British air craft:

Enemy aircraft—16 destroyed on the ground; 34 damaged.

Enemy shipping—six cargo vessels and eight small craft sunk; two destroyer escorts, 10 cargo vessels and eight small craft damaged.

Ground installations—one locomotive destroyed; four railway cars, two freight trains, barracks, hangars, buildings, freight yards and railway stations damaged.

He also made these additions to results achieved on Thursday: Enemy shipping—a destroyer and three destroyer escorts sunk and a freighter damaged by U. S. and British carrier planes; two destroyer escorts and two freighters sunk, a destroyer, a mine layer and four freighters damaged by American aircraft. Four cargo vessels sunk and two destroyer escorts damaged by British aircraft.

The fleet raiders destroyed or damaged 391 enemy planes Thursday and 320 Friday.

The two-day total was 311 planes destroyed and 227 damaged, a total of 538.

Saddle For Halsey Finished

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—A $2,000 silver-encrusted saddle will be flown to Admiral "Bull" Halsey if he decides to ride Emperor Hirohito's white charger through Tokyo after Japan's surrender.

The treasury said today that the western stock saddle of blonde leather ordered for Halsey by the Reno, Nevada, Chamber of Commerce has been finished.

When the Pacific war ends the navy will air express the saddle to Halsey's headquarters, the treasury said.

Halsey said several months ago that he hoped to lead a parade through Tokyo on Shitayuki, the emperor's white horse.

Still Hunt For Hit-And-Run Driver Of Car

Police Report An Increase In Car Accidents

Police, like sheriff and state troopers are still conducting investigations, endeavoring to find the hit and run driver, whose automobile struck and fatally injured five-year-old Wanda Jean Oswald, the first of the month. Numerous "tips" have been received by the officers, all which are being checked.

The officers are requesting anyone who might have any kind of a "tip" to inform them immediately. Any information will be kept in strict confidence of the officers state.

During the past week and a half several hundred light colored automobiles have been checked for possible markings, and as many persons have been contacted in an effort to obtain some clue as to the driver of the automobile.

This year, three persons have met death from injuries received by being struck by motor vehicles, one more than killed in 1944.

More Accidents

Records at police headquarters this year show a decided increase in automobile accidents, there being, up until Saturday noon, 102 reports, compared with 92 for the entire year of 1944. Also the records show there are to date eight arrests on intoxicated drivers have been made by the police, compared with six for the entire previous year.

Chief Anson Finnell declared Saturday he is anxious for some information which might lead to the arrest of the driver of the car which struck the little girl, and also is informing the police to be more strict in arresting drivers of automobiles who insist in speeding, running red lights, and driving in a careless and reckless manner.

American Forces Still On Alert

By NORMAN BELL
Associated Press War Editor

American forces stood guard in the Pacific today (Sunday) against possible Japanese treachery while Russia's Red army surged on through Manchuria pending the Tokyo government's decision on conditional acceptance by the Allies of its surrender offer.

Admiral Nimitz alerted the fleet and other units of his Pacific command Saturday against possible treachery and other American commanders cautioned their men that they were still at war.

The alert continued into Sunday, when Nimitz declaring at Guam that only instructions from Washington would bring any relaxation of his order.

Russians Are Still Driving In Manchuria

By HENRY B. JAMESON

LONDON, Aug. 11.—(P)—Russian armored spearheads, in lightning 50-mile advances, burst across the great Khingan mountain range in western Manchuria today and broke into the river-cut valleys leading down to the Japanese war arsenal city of Harbin, Moscow announced.

The pile-driving Soviet smashers that have covered 155 miles in two days tore through natural Japanese defenses in western Manchuria in disregard of the exchange of peace notes between Japan and the Allied nations.

Moscow's third Japanese war bulletin revealed three Soviet Far Eastern armies had been thrown into the great battle for Manchuria. Veteran commanders of the European eastern front led the assault under Supreme Command of Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky, former Red army chief of staff.

Threat Cut-Off on Japs

The three tank-tipped armies, breaking into Manchuria at least at five points along mountainous 2,000-mile Manchurian frontier, were converging on Harbin from the west, north and east in drives that threatened to cut off Japanese armies in northern Manchuria.

The Soviet advances brought hope of quick liberation to many American prisoners of war camps in Manchuria and this morning the Khabarovsk radio called on Red army men to fight with determination, demanding the "merciless destruction of the enemy."

Japanese resistance varied. In the west, Russian armored columns tore through the Japanese lines without much opposition, but in the heavily-wooded, hilly terrain 100 miles northwest of Vladivostok, fanatic enemy defenders of the Kwantung army held the Russians to nine and 15-mile gains.

Some 480 to 500 miles separated the tips of a giant pincer moving into Manchuria from the west and east along the axis of the Chinese Eastern railroad. Moscow dispatches said the encirclement of tens of thousands of crack Japanese troops in northern Manchuria was a distinct possibility.

Halt Moving Of Ammunition West

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—The War Department said today that railroad movement of ammunition to the Pacific coast has been halted.

The order issued yesterday does not affect movement from ports. The department added that adequate supplies of ammunition were in the Pacific to meet immediate contingencies.

The action, taken coincident with indications of Japanese readiness to quit, directed railroads to stop all movements of ammunition in the United States and Canada and hold them at convenient points.

Congress To Meet Sept. 4

Vacation Will Be Shortened Due To Big Issues

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—Congress will cut short its vacation and reconvene probably on September 4 to act on five major issues involved in a sudden change from war to peace.

The date was decided today at a conference of President Truman and senate majority leader Barkley of Kentucky. House majority leader McCormack, in Massachusetts, agreed by telephone.

Barkley told reporters at the White House these subjects are to be taken up:

1. A bill to provide a maximum of $25 a week unemployment compensation up to 26 weeks on a nation-wide basis, the federal government to supplement funds where states do not provide such a scale.

2. Removing the surplus war property disposal task from the present 3-man board to a single administration.

3. The so-called full employment bill designed to link management, labor and government into a vast effort to provide perhaps as many as 60,000,000 jobs in peacetime.

4. Decisions on what legislation might be needed to keep alive for a while those war agencies which still might have a job to do. This would contemplate perhaps the immediate abolition of those whose task could be considered ended.

5. Reorganization of the government set-up, merging a number of agencies within regular departments and setting up others as independent. This was one of President Truman's principal proposals soon after he took office.

Barkley said he is getting in touch immediately with committee chairman to get to work on the legislation involved, complete hearings and "have something ready" for the calendar by the September 4 date, which he did not describe as definite, but probable.

There is no need for congress to return before then, Barkley pointed out, for the very reason that this snafu work has yet to be done. The congress recess had been planned to last until October 8.

Big Cutback To Halt Building Of 95 Ships

Army Officials Talk Of Slash In Buying Munitions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—Lessening navy needs brought a halt today to the building of 95 ships costing $1,200,000,000 and army officers told of plans to cut war purchases by an amount exceeding $25,000,000,000 on a yearly basis.

Fifty-six combatant ships are included in the navy cutback, which War Mobilizer John W. Snyder attributed to a review of what was required to whip Japan. There was no formal announcement of the army program but Snyder made it clear that the real V-J deluge of cutbacks was yet to come.

The combatant vessels include the 45,000-ton battleship Illinois at Philadelphia, the 27,100-ton carriers Reprisal at New York and Hiro Jima at Newport News, Va., and 10 heavy cruisers.

The navy now is left with a construction program of about 160 combatant ships, including one battleship, three 45,000-ton carriers, six 27,100-ton carriers, two 14,500-ton carriers, 10 escort carriers, 13 heavy cruisers, nine light cruisers, 76 destroyers and 30 submarines.

Army officials talked of a cut of 98 to 100 per cent in the purchase of munitions, tractors and other heavy equipment once the Japanese surrender is final. They made these other estimates:

Service force requirements, now running at $1,800,000,000 a month, will be cut 80 per cent or about $1,400,000,000.

Air service requirements, now about $750,000,000 a month, will be cut 90 per cent, or $675,000,000. These estimated cuts total $2,175,000,000 a month—$25,380,000,000 over a 12-month period.

Food purchasing is expected to remain at about the same heavy volume for a time at least.

Reduction Anticipated

It was pointed out that much of the heavy estimated reductions in army buying constituted only paper cuts, since it had been assumed beforehand that there would be great lessening before the year was out.

In announcing the navy cutback, Snyder took over for the White House the issuance of official news on reconversion. Other government agencies were told to keep their war-to-peace plans private until President Truman gives the signal.

The purpose of this taboo, it was explained, is to allow coordination of plans of various agencies and to prevent disclosure before peace is an accomplished fact. The edict caused cancellation of at least one news conference.

When he had completed his war bulletin, the musical program was resumed.

"Lay That Pistol Down, Babe," blared the first selection.

Call on All Of The Japanese For National Unity

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—(P)—The Tokyo newspaper Asahi in its Sunday, Aug. 12, edition called upon the Japanese to maintain national unity "if worst comes to worst," saying atomic bombing and Russia's declaration of war have "greatly intensified the gravest national crisis," Domei reported to-night in a wireless dispatch recorded by the FCC.

The newspaper asked every Japanese to "do his or her part as his majesty's subjects in fullest obedience of the august wish of his majesty." The maintenance of Japanese national honor and the survival of the nation hinges upon "closest compliance" with Emperor Hirohito's wishes, the article added.

The English-language dispatch, beamed to the United States, quoted Asahi's "top-column feature article" as saying that since the beginning of Japanese history "The Japanese nation has gone through many an ordeal and kept growing by courageously overcoming such ordeals."

"The path through which our people trod in national growth," Asahi added "has been an extremely thorny one. In the numerous national crises which our ancestors have calmly and courageously gone through our national destiny was placed in gravest danger, either internally or externally."

"Even in the worst chaotic stage in each national crisis our people always have been gratified to find a rallying point of their souls and action. The western term, 'Wandering soul,' has no place in our language."

By faithfully obeying his majesty's august wish our people have always found a way out of such crises. Our ancestors have thus overcome many a national crisis and handed down to their posterity Japan as she is now with her spirit and blood."

At this point in the broadcast of the article, the FCC reported the transmission was interrupted, "presumably because of technical difficulties."

The transmission was resumed a few minutes later with the following continuation of the quotation:

"The Soviet Union's abrupt declaration of war on Japan, coupled with the United States' resort to atomic bombs, entailing the most atrocious mass slaughter of civilians on a scale, unprecedented in human history, has greatly intensified the gravest national crisis. She stands at the cross road whether or not she is able to maintain her unique national policy and uphold the honor of the Japanese race."

The newspaper said that all Japanese must "face reality squarely with absolute calmness and with the greatest courage."

"Closest compliance with the august wish of his majesty, in complete disregard for one's own private selfish interest is the only source from which the nation can derive strength to live and revive, carrying on their undying national tradition," the article said.

Report Attack On Shikoku

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—(P)—The American Broadcasting company tonight quoted the Japanese Domei agency as reporting almost 70 Superfortresses, fighter-escorted, attacked Matsuyama, on the northwest coast of Shikoku, at 10 a. m. Sunday, Tokyo time.

It was the first reported Superfort attack since Japan's peace offer became known Friday night, except for a mining operation that continued until the early morning hours Saturday.

Surrender Would Free 16,700 Americans

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—Surrender of Japan would mean liberation for approximately 16,700 Americans presently interned in the home islands or enemy-occupied territory, a check of war, navy and state department records disclosed today.

Term Of Acceptance Of Peace Offer Would Divest Emperor Of Any Powers Of Control Other Than That Dictated Through Him To The Japanese People

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—(P)—Domei said in a dispatch Sunday, Aug. 12, that Foreign Minister Togo was received in audience today by Emperor Hirohito and "was understood to have reported to the throne" on matters under his jurisdiction. The dispatch was recorded by the Associated Press.

Allies To Dictate Orders

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—The Allies told quavering Japan today they would dictate to her emperor "from the moment of surrender" and tossed back to Tokyo the bitter decision on immediate peace or more war.

But to Washington, London, Moscow and Chungking the hour of final victory appeared near in history's most horrible war.

The latest declaration of Allied terms was transmitted through neutral Switzerland. Bern handed it over late today to Japan's minister in the Swiss capital, for relay to Tokyo. It was the answer to Japan's offer yesterday to surrender—provided she could keep her emperor and his sovereign prerogatives.

Then, at 5 p. m. (C. W. T.) the White House sent its staff home and said "There will be no announcements tonight."

TOMORROW IT MAY BE A DIFFERENT STORY.
TOMORROW MAY BE V-J DAY.

For most diplomatic experts held the opinion that Japan would realize that by battling hopelessly on she merely would postpone, at the cost of more destruction and slaughter, imposition of the same stern terms which now confront her.

The four great powers told the Japanese that a still unnamed Allied supreme commander would control them through their emperor. They withheld any assurances that Hirohito or any successor could remain indefinitely on his throne.

Expected To Yield

The Japanese people eventually will decide for themselves, they said, whether there is to be an emperor at all.

The fate of the man the Nipponese consider a combination of God and emperor—and the question whether he or others can guarantee surrender compliance—were the only obstacles to peace. Otherwise both sides were willing to abide by surrender terms laid down in the proclamation of Potsdam. Under declaration Japan would lose her stolen empire and shrink to peaceful existence in the home islands.

Now that Japan has made her bid to keep an emperor with all his powers, and failed, there were high expectations around the world that she would yield to the will of the Allies. A diplomatic expert on Far Eastern affairs predicted here that the land of the setting sun would "snap up" the latest Allied conditions.

From the Swiss legation here, where it was delivered by a state department official, the Allied statement of intentions toward the emperor went by radio to Bern.

There the chief of the political department's foreign division called in Japanese Minister Shumishi Kase and handed it over at 2:25 p. m. (C. W. T.).

Kase dashed from the parliament building to a waiting automobile, promising to transmit the document to Tokyo at once. He had no comment beyond this: "I'm in a hurry."

Two Chief Conditions

The Big Four Allied powers today made a conditional acceptance of Japan's offer to quit the war.

The two principal conditions of acceptance: The emperor must subject himself to the orders of a supreme Allied commander.

A government in Japan must be ultimately established in accordance with "the freely expressed will of the Japanese people."

This language apparently did not offer any assurance of a permanent continuation of the sun-god throne—something on which the Japanese people will themselves have the last say.

There is at this time no designated Allied supreme commander—mentioned in the reply to Tokyo.

Crossroads Comment

Where The Soap Is Going—

Trying to "keep up with the Jones" in the matter of personal possessions used to revolve around the annual purchase of a shiny new automobile model with extra gadgets the neighbors' cars didn't have. Now the practice is to shop the stores for scarce items of merchandise and create a personal hoard of such things as cigarettes, chewing gum, and soap. As one "patriotic" shopper put it to a store proprietor who could not comply with her request for a box of soap powder: "Oh, well, I don't need it anyway. I've been to all the stores the past two weeks and collected as much as two cases of soap powder—more than my whole neighborhood put together has collected. They're not going to catch me short on washing soap for a long time."

No Local Phone Briefs—

The telephone company's campaign to make conversations brief may be working on long distance calls, but local calls continue to be long-winded, especially among the teen-age crowd and the women. There is some comfort in this for the telephone operator—the longer customers talk the fewer plug-ins.

It's a Dog's Life—

Just because dogs have been domesticated for at least 7,000 years is no reason why wives should consider it a precedent to train more hen-pecked husbands.

The Busy Painters—

Remember way back when if you dropped a hint you might have your house painted, painters were thick as flies trying to bid in the job? Nowadays you're lucky to get a tag-end position on a long waiting list. Even the one-time chore men are more scarce than hen's teeth. So get out and cut your own front yard.

Why Troops Need Trains—

Papers have been full of the necessary restrictions invoked against civilian transportation. Trains are needed for troops coming home from Europe and going to the Pacific theatre. Yet with all the explanations concerning the necessity, many civilians cannot seem to visualize the critical transportation situation. They are of the opinion it's just another bureaucratic joker with which they had become so familiar during the hey-day of the New Deal.

Well, here's a succinct paragraph on the army requirements for railroad trains: It takes 71 railroad trains, each with a minimum of 20 cars, to move an army division of about 15,000 men with their weapons and equipment. Since troops traveling by rail move about 250 miles a day, it would take almost 1,500 cars 10 days to move the division across the United States.

The Bomb of Peace—

People were horrified over life and property destruction caused by crash of an army bomber into the Empire State building. Mostly this natural reaction was brought about because the accident could have been avoided. Steps are taken immediately by the army and civilian authorities to lessen the chance of such accidents occurring again. All of which is right and proper and sincere. Thus it is in matters involving a few lives.

Wouldn't it be right and proper and sincere for nations of the world to become just as concerned over life and property destructions running into the millions and billions, especially since warfare is deliberate, not accidental? Perhaps advent of the new atomic bomb will create such horriification among peoples of the world that perpetual peace between and among nations will be the only alternative to civilization's survival.

James Boys In Sedalia—

Since G. U. Bauman's story about the James' gang appearance in Houstonia, John Kuhn, 510 North Grand, brings the activities of the Missouri bandits a bit closer to Sedalia. He writes:

"My father told me about the James boys when they were in Sedalia. One day he said they came into town and everybody was looking for a holdup. I don't know whether they had police or not in those days. My father said the James boys hitched their horses just west of the Johannes building on West Second street. They had watering troughs and hitching posts in those days—no automobiles. My father was a brother to Peter Kuhn. They were in business on Ohio street around by where Rosenthal's Department store is now located. Peter Kuhn and father had a cigar called the "Resolution," sold nationwide. They sold them by the thousands; worked 16 cigar makers, something that is not known these days. But to get back to the James boys. Father said four of them came and bought cigars. They were well-dressed, wore cowboy white hats and were well armed with pistols on both sides. They wore cartridge belts and looked ready for anything that might happen. Father said the James boys looked Sedalia over and rode out of town."

Thanks, John, for that story about early days in Sedalia. There might have been a little subtle humor in your father's remark about the James gang looking Sedalia over and then riding out of town. Maybe the old town didn't look good to them roottin', tootin', shootin' James boys. Then again maybe the James outfit saw the steely glint in the eyes of the Ohio street onlookers and decided that Sedalians might be a bit too tough to take on.

Ouch!—

The most irresistible force in the world today is the forward-moving GI shouting the new battle cry: "Up and atom!"

If anyone wants positive proof of what paint will do to rejuvenate a business property they should look at The Hausman company building, Fourth street and Osage. The dull brick color now has an aluminum paint coat, and it really gleams. The entire area around the four corners has been illuminated by the light reflection from this building. Persons passing by notice this general lighting effect and wonder what causes it. It's a result of a good paint job.

Building owners can profitably paint up—if you can get the painters—and knock off the cost from taxes later on.

So, Hirohito Is Indispensable?—

Japanese surrender offers seem to hinge around retention of their emperor, Hirohito. Nothing else matters. Hiro and his horse must remain as god-symbol.

The point is advanced, too, by some of our leading commentators that if the emperor were suddenly removed chaos would result in the Japanese homeland.

Suppose Hirohito died suddenly of a heart attack—if he ever had a heart! There just naturally would be a successor—that's the way the emperor and king business operates. "The king

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11—In fact is that Stalin agreed as far back as the Teheran conference to come into the war against Japan. That was the price he agreed to pay in return for the second front in Normandy. . . . Churchill was opposed to the second front through France, but Stalin insisted on it, and FDR threw his weight with Stalin in return for the pledge on Japan. . . . More recently at Potsdam, Truman took the whole matter up again with Stalin. . . . Chief thing the Russians have been working on to prepare for the Jap war is re-laying the Trans-Siberian railway. A total of 30,000 miles of track has now been laid, one of the biggest quickest, rail-building jobs in history. . . . In return for Russian entry into the war, it was agreed that Russia would get all Allied military secrets. The atomic bomb at that time was only an idea, and no one knew whether or not it would materialize. As far as can be ascertained, it was not discussed with the Russians.

Apparently the Germans were thinking about an atomic weapon for a long time. Twenty years ago, Louis Lehman, concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic orchestra, went to Utah to invest in Uranium mines. He had been tipped off by his brother, a physicist in Germany, who foresaw the tremendous possibilities of pitchblende and informed his brother in this country that experiments made it advisable to purchase options on uranium deposits. . . . The options are believed to have lapsed. . . . For some unexplained reason, a staff of publicity men from Ivy Lee's public relations office has been quartered at the highly secret Oak Ridge, Tenn., site of the atomic bomb plant for several months. . . . Ivy Lee is the man who largely reversed American antipathy for the elder John D. Rockefeller. . . . What he was doing for the army remains to be seen. . . . There is something awfully funny about the sudden retraction of scientist Harold Jacobson's statement that for 70 years human life cannot survive in an area struck by an atomic bomb, and that rain falling in that area will poison neighboring areas when carried away in streams. . . . The army's haste to deny the story, coupled with an army statement that Dr. Jacobson was bound to secrecy under the Espionage Act made a lot of people examine facts twice. The army was obviously worried about public reaction. . . . Though a lot of people deserve credit for developing the new atomic bomb, one man stood above them all as the greatest single factor in its development—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Only a few people know the details of how Roosevelt approached this greatest and most fantastic weapon of international warfare. However, when he finally decided to pour $2,000,000,000 of the nation's resources into hundreds of miles of government-owned factories certain to consume the energies of half a million critically needed workers at the peak of the war, he was gambling, not only the nation's resources, but his own name in history. . . . Had the project failed, Roosevelt would have been the goat. The vast plants in Tennessee and Washington state would have been scoffed at as "Roosevelt's greatest white elephant." Political opponents could have used it to keep the Democratic party out of power for a decade. . . . Roosevelt, however, never flinched.

Nor is it generally known that the man who prodded Roosevelt hardest to undertake the atomic project was another "star-gazing" official, former Vice-President Henry Wallace. Wallace was the missionary for the project, one of the few key men in government who understood the theory of the atom and who, as a friend of the world's great scientists spurred General Marshall and war agency heads into speedier action.

NOTE: Incidentally, it was Wallace's dreamy-eyed experimentation with a new type of corn that will give the world 400,000,000 more bushels of corn to feed the hungry this year. So perhaps the "crackpot professors" and the "starry-eyed dreamers" Roosevelt brought to Washington were worth while after all.

Truman's K.C. Office
President Truman's friends in

is dead—long live the king," meaning of course some blood relation takes over; if a child, under a regency. . . . The argument being heard in the present instance has as its thesis the discredited proposition of indispensability. We have read enough in history and had personal experience enough in our own generation to know that the world moves on no matter how important one man seems to be in the affairs of a nation. . . . Emperor Hirohito in the eyes of Americans is a symbol of Japanese treachery and butchery just as Hitler was. To the German people Hitler was a near-god. Would the United Nations have conditioned Germany's surrender on Adolph remaining as Fuehrer of that nation?

Why temporize with the Japanese about this matter? Why placate these barbarians? To save American lives of course. Well, then, if we must have Hiro, then let him sit on his throne as a figure-head only with United Nations authority directing his every move on behalf of an attempt to humanize a barbaric race of people. But don't let this white-horse riding Emperor become the generating power to build another war machine.

We've gone this far with the Japanese. They are beaten and want to quit. They can no more stand atomic bombing than they can stand starvation. If they want to save face, let them wash the blood off their physiognomy first.

Some of the reasons behind the War Department's insistence on keeping a tremendous two-front army to fight a one-front war, also behind the sudden scramble for conscription, have become clearer since Potsdam.

Brass-hat insistence on keeping veterans busy picking up cigarette butts when they have ample points to obtain discharge, has been puzzling members of Congress. Also it's not generally realized that the army and navy together plan to reduce their size by only 10 per cent during the coming year, despite the new atomic bomb, despite Germany's collapse, and despite the fact that it is a physical impossibility to transport such a large army to the Pacific.

The June strength of the army, immediately after V-E day, was 8,300,000 men. Between June 1945 and June 1946, the army brass hats plan to discharge approximately 1,300,000 men. But, meanwhile, General Hershey has announced that the army plans to continue drafting men at the rate of 100,000 per month, which, in 12 months, means an additional 1,200,000 men.

This is something the army has not explained. For, unless this policy is changed, the army by next June will be about the same size it is today.

All this is why senators and congressmen have been blowing off steam in recent weeks. Even staunch Democrats are beginning to admit privately that perhaps Gov. Dewey's campaign charges about keeping men in the army after the war were right.

U. S. Army In Germany
Meanwhile, one secret commitment made by Roosevelt at Yalta has now leaked out. This is one reason why the War Department is so anxious to rush a peacetime conscription act through Congress even before the war is over.

At Yalta, Roosevelt gave a promise that the United States would keep an army of 500,000 men in Germany for four to five years. Half a million men is a tremendous force to keep overseas in peacetime, especially when the executive power to maintain such an army automatically ends shortly after hostilities cease. . . . The Selective Service Act expires on May 15, 1946. That act permits the president to deploy troops overseas without congressional authority until six months after the war. The first War Powers Act also expires six months after hostilities. So unless a conscription act is passed, or some new power given the White House, an American army of occupation in Germany would be illegal.

President Truman, however, is known to have a lot of new ideas on this subject. At Potsdam, he arranged for the withdrawal of most of the American army from Italy. He also proposed that all Allied troops get out of the occupied countries as soon as possible—with the exception of Germany. . . . Germany, of course, is in a different category. However, the American zone of occupation is small, and military men admit that it could be controlled by 100,000 men rather than the tremendous army of half a million. . . . This is one of the most important problems now facing Truman. Those who know him well think he will be against manpower hoarding by the brass hats and will favor the national guard-ROTC system of military training

A TEEN-AGE Girl DOWNTOWN IN ONE OF THE Stores THE OTHER Day WAS STANDING AT A COUNTER CHATTING WITH A FRIEND TELLING HER About A DATE She Had OR WAS Going TO HAVE WITH A Sedalia Lad WHETHER HER Comments WERE COMPLIMENTARY OR OTHERWISE I DON'T Know BUT I Do Know THAT A Woman UNKNOWN TO The Girl ALSO STANDING AT THE COUNTER WAS LISTENING TO EVERY Word FINALLY SHE Turned TO THE Teen-Ager AND SAID "BE CAREFUL What YOU SAY ABOUT THAT Boy HE'S MY Brother" I THANK YOU rather than the European system of peacetime conscription.

Under the Dome

Working for the Senate may mean more prestige than working for the House, but the pay-off on the House side is far better. During the session just ended, the congressmen not only voted $2,400 annual expense money to themselves (which the Senate refused to do for itself) but also voted raises for several employees. The House parliamentarian, who was on a salary of $8,500, compared with $6,500 for the Senate parliamentarian, got a raise of $1,000 and an additional $500 so long as the present parliamentarian is in office. This brings his salary to $10,000. . . . The House chaplain receives $2,500 compared with only $1,680 for the Senate chaplain; the House journal clerk receives $7,000 compared with $5,000 for the Senate journal clerk; and the House postmaster receives $3,000 compared with $3,600 for the Senate postmaster. Similar inequities prevail throughout the extensive list of Senate and House employees. . . . Representative John Sparkman, liberal Alabamian, believes in doing things in twos. He has the only set of twins working as secretaries in a congressional office, Anne and Alice Canterbury of Huntsville, Ala. And he's bursting with pride right now because two Huntsville boys—Lieut. Cecil "Bushy" Bolden and S/Sgt. Paul Bolden will shortly be given the Congressional Medal of Honor in a joint ceremony. . . . The shortage of labor in west coast shipyards is so serious that ships are going out in good repair but without the latest equipment. One naval officer remarks that while the radar equipment on his boat "might pick up an iceberg at two miles," the equipment on newer boats in his fleet "could pick up a seagull at ten miles."

Looking Backward

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 12—The peace conference met at 9:35 o'clock this morning and adjourned at 10:40 o'clock. Before the conference met it was well understood that M. Witte's reply upon the two main points was a firm but courteous refusal. There were open intimations that unless the Japanese modify their positions upon these points the attempt to negotiate peace must result in failure, and predictions were freely made among the Russian correspondents that next week would see the end. The Japanese acted as if their minds were made up. Petitions are heard that if a break comes President Roosevelt will again step into the breach.

INT. ARCHER HOME—LOWER HALL FULL SHOT

WE ARE NOW SHOOTING AT AN ANGLE WHICH enables us to see the stairs and also into the living room. Mrs. Archer, the Franklins, Dexter, and Louise are in the living room which is being set for the imminent nuptials. Uncle George is just emerging from this melee, holding Corliss by one arm and Mr. Archer by the other. He leads them into the hall and to the foot of the stairs.

UNCLE GEORGE: Now, Harry, you will stand with Corliss at the head of those stairs—and at the first strains of the Wedding March—

MR. ARCHER: What? Who's going to play it?

UNCLE GEORGE: (soothingly) That's all taken care of, Harry. Louise plays it beautifully. Now, you two go on up there and when I—

MRS. ARCHER: (peering around from the living room) Oh, George—where shall I—

UNCLE GEORGE: Coming, my dear, coming.

He bustles happily back into the living room as Corliss and her father slowly go up the stairs to take their appointed places.

LIVING ROOM
Mrs. Archer and Mrs. Franklin are fussing over a couple of bridge tables which have been covered with a beautiful banquet cloth to serve as an improvised altar. Candles are arranged on it. Dexter lounges against the mantelpiece, happily surveying the scene of his impending wedding. Louise is dusting off the piano. Uncle George looks the scene over.

UNCLE GEORGE: Just a little bit more forward, I think. As everyone converges to carry out his bidding—

INT. HALL MED. SHOT
We are shooting towards the door leading onto the porch past the stairs. Mr. Pringle is coming towards the camera. Archer, with Corliss on his arm, having heard the cue, is just proceeding stiffly down the stairs. He and Pringle catch sight of each other simultaneously.

EXT. ARCHER HOME—DRIVEWAY—NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Pringle, Mildred, and Raymond are arriving in a breathless group.

MRS. PRINGLE: (apprehensively) Oh, Harry, I don't know how I'm going to face them.

MR. PRINGLE: Just leave it to me, Dorothy. I'll break the news to 'em.

EXT. PORCH FULL SHOT

The porch is deserted as the Pringles, led by Mr. Pringle, cautiously let themselves in. They are all on tiptoe. Pringle peers around the room and then starts for the hall.

MR. PRINGLE: (hoarse whisper) You all stay here.

With the telegram firmly clasped in his hand, he starts towards the hall.

INT. LIVING ROOM

The improvised altar is finally arranged to Uncle George's liking.

UNCLE GEORGE: There—that'll be fine. Now let's try it, shall we? (motioning Louise towards the piano) Go ahead, Louise. That's fine.

Now, Dexter, you stand here. With jovial ad libs he places the two mothers appropriately, ditto Mr. Franklin.

MR. ARCHER: (howling) You rat! Have you come here to gloat over me—in my shame!?

With this he descends the stairs in a couple of maniacal bounds, obviously intent upon mayhem. Corliss tries to grab her father, but it is too late. Pringle backs down the hall towards the porch.

MR. PRINGLE: Now wait a minute, Harry.

MR. ARCHER: Get out of my house! He chases Pringle onto the porch.

INT. LIVING ROOM

This is just a FLASH. Louise is pounding away on the piano which to some extent drowns out the racket. Uncle George is standing over her and, in an effort to point out a place where Louise is playing incorrectly, is lustily singing the refrain for her. It is evident to the others that something is going on in the hall, and the Franklins and Dexter go out of the living room to ascertain the cause of the racket. Louise and Uncle George are still absorbed at the piano.

EXT. PORCH

Mrs. Pringle, Mildred and Raymond are somewhat startled to see their father being chased by a raging Mr. Archer.

RAYMOND: (to Archer—cheerfully) Hi, Mr. Archer! Archer shoves him aside.

MR. ARCHER: Out of my sight or I'll kill you, too!

Pringle is already darting towards the screen door, still waving the telegram in a faintly conciliatory fashion.

MR. PRINGLE: Relax, Harry—look at this telegram!

Archer, however, is in no mood to look at telegrams. Brushing past assorted Pringles, he dives for Pringle who beats it hastily into the garden with Archer at his heels. Raymond, sensing an imminent fight, skates out after them.

RAYMOND: Oh boy—this is going to be good!

Atom Bomb Proves Worse Than Earthquake

HIROSHIMA: Estimated 100,000 to 150,000 instantaneously killed by one atom bomb

WORLD WAR I: Americans killed in World War I totaled only 126,000 men

Tokyo-Yokohama earthquake, 1923, Japan's greatest single catastrophe since 1703 and the world's second worst earthquake, killed only 99,231

Americans, scores of miles away, who felt the cataclysmic effect of the experimental atom bomb exploded in New Mexico last July thought it was an earthquake. And well they might, for reports from the city of Hiroshima after its blasting by an atom bomb indicate that many more people were killed than died in the great Japanese earthquake of 1923, one of the worst single disasters in modern times. Another indication of the lethal power of atomic energy is the comparison of Hiroshima's death toll with total of Americans killed in World War I.

Railroad Men Working On Road in India

NEW DELHI, India—Three Sedalia, Mo., men are "working on the railroad" in India getting supplies through to our Chinese allies. They are: Technician 4th Grade Marvin C. Hazel, husband of Mrs. Marie H. Hazel, 1501 South Barrett avenue; Sergeant Carlyle W. Townsend, husband of Mrs. Roberta Townsend, 310 East Thirtieth and son of Mrs. George Shoemaker, Ottumville; and Private First Class Elmer Paul, Jr., husband of Mrs. Velma F. Paul, 416 1/2 West Broadway, and son of Elmer Paul, 128 South Park, Sedalia, Mo.

Most of the railroad men in India are serving with units of the Military Railway Service on the meter-gauge Bengal and Assam railway. Soon after the India Burma Theater transportation service took over operation of the road in March 1944, its carrying capacity was increased 100 per cent.

Started For Tea Planters

The road was built originally to fulfill the peacetime requirements of the Assam tea planters. Now it is one of the most important supply arteries for American and Allied troops in the Far East.

A large proportion of war materiel destined for China goes over the railroad from Calcutta to depots in Assam. There it is dispatched over the Stilwell road or flown over the Hump by transport planes.

GI railroaders in India have worked under rough conditions, at jungle and mountain outposts, and through monsoon rains. They, like their brother railroaders at home, have done a transportation job unequalled in history.

It has been estimated that on average airline schedules, level cruising occupies roughly 50 per cent of the total time, descent 30 per cent, climb 15 per cent, high-powered climb 2 per cent, running up the engines on the ground and taxiing 2 per cent, and take-off about 1 per cent.

Airlines using planes having capacity of 15 passengers or more, or where a pilot flies five hours or more a day without a rest period, are required to have a copilot.

More Punch In Second Bomb

Less Difficult To Construct With Greater Potency

GUAM, Sunday, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Thomas F. Farrell, commander of America's atomic bomb operations in the Pacific, declared yesterday that the A-bomb which struck the war-busting city of Nagasaki packed more punch than the first one dropped on Hiroshima.

Farrell said the second bomb not only was more potent, but made obsolete the No. 1 parcel of death, and was less difficult to construct.

And as the U. S. army strategic air forces announced that 30 per cent of Nagasaki had been destroyed in the mission of devastation Thursday, Maj. Charles W. Sweeney, pilot of the big Superfortress which carried out the attack, said:

"The turbulence from the blast at Nagasaki was greater than at Hiroshima."

Reconnaissance photographs showed that destruction at Hiroshima was greater, however. General Spaatz' strategic command said 60 per cent of Hiroshima was destroyed in the bombing last Monday.

Farrell did not elaborate on the increased potency of the bomb or its manufacture, size or weight, nor on the comparative destruction handed the two cities.

Pictures Show Crater
Post-bombing pictures of Nagasaki showed a great crater where the bomb struck. No crater appeared in the Hiroshima photographs. The Japanese claimed both missiles were dropped by parachute and that the Hiroshima bomb exploded before it struck the ground.

Spaatz suggested that the geography and topography of the two cities would have a bearing on the results of the bombs.

In any event, much of Nagasaki's vast war facilities—shipping, aircraft and steel industries, rail, naval and other vital installations—were either completely wrecked or heavily damaged.

The Tokyo radio, after a lengthy silence, issued contrasting reports. One said the damage was "slight," the other that damage was extensive, with many lives lost.

Spaatz said the area of destruction in the built-up area ranged on both sides of the Urakami river for a distance of two miles, with a maximum width of seventenths of a mile.

Included was the great Mitsubishi Steel plant, which produced 200,000 tons of finished steel products each year and was a source of naval torpedoes, and the Mitsubishi-Urakami ordnance plant, which turned out 4,800 aerial torpedoes annually.

five conditions in his message to the Japanese:

"From the moment of the surrender the authority of the emperor and the Japanese government to rule the state shall be subject to the supreme commander of the Allied powers who will take such steps as he deems proper to effectuate the surrender terms.

"The emperor will be required to authorize and insure the signature of the government of Japan and the Japanese imperial general headquarters of the surrender terms necessary to carry out the provisions of the Potsdam declaration and shall issue his command to all the Japanese military, naval and air authorities and to all the forces under their control wherever located to cease active operations and to surrender their arms and to issue other orders as the supreme commander may require to give effect to the surrender terms.

"Immediately upon the surrender, the Japanese government shall transport prisoners of war and civilian internees to places of safety as directed, where they can quickly be placed aboard Allied transports.

"The ultimate form of government of Japan shall, in accordance with the Potsdam declaration, be established by the freely expressed will of the Japanese people.

"The armed forces of the Allied powers will remain in Japan until the purposes set forth in the Potsdam declaration are achieved."

Rumors Are Refuted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The Office of War Information tonight issued the following statement:

"Various rumors that the Federal Communications Commission, or a Chungking broadcast quoting Tokyo, to the effect that Japan has rejected Allied surrender terms are without foundation. The FCC has recorded no such broadcast.

"Another report, to the effect that the Japanese war minister has called on Japanese forces to continue the fight, appears to be a garbled version of an appeal he made in the Diet."

tives the Japanese will have to be educated from the ground up.

These officials cautioned against holding an election too early. They say a plebiscite need not necessarily be linked to occupation, since the Allies could supervise an election even after external control over Japan is substituted for the direct controls represented by troops.

Could Force Changes

In the meantime, however, the supreme Allied commander who actually directs the government through the emperor under the big four's terms will be in a position to force immediate constitutional changes.

Japan's constitution was handed down to the people by the emperor in 1890. It can't be changed except by the emperor. The emperor carefully kept most of the power for himself.

For instance, whenever the house of representatives of the diet disagrees with the cabinet, the emperor can dissolve the legislative body. If the house fails to pass the budget his cabinet demands, the previous year's budget goes into effect with any additions upon which the ministers may decide.

One of the first moves of the Allies may be to force Hirohito—or his son Akihito, if he succeeds to the throne—to turn the purse strings over to the lower house. This house's members are elected on a fairly representative basis by the males of Japan who have had universal suffrage since 1928.

The emperor may find taken away from him his power to dissolve the parliamentary body and to issue in its absence ordinances with the effect of laws. His cabinet thus may be forced to abide by majority decisions of the house or resign.

The emperor probably would be required to replace with civilians the army and navy officers who have been the only ones eligible under the constitution for minister of war and marine.

Along with these steps Hirohito would be forced to provide, under the terms of the Potsdam ultimatum, for "freedom of speech, of religion, and of thought, as well as respect for fundamental human rights."

At the same time he would have to remove the obstacles, placed in 1930 when the army began to tighten its hold around the throne, on the democratic elements which then were beginning to show some strength in the country. These included many Japanese educated in the United States, small businessmen, students and Christians.

Many officials here feel that only after all of these precautions have been taken and the Japanese have been educated in the workings of democracy, perhaps for years, can a representative plebiscite be held on their form of government.

Six Ships Bring 17,000 'Vets' Back

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The giant liner Queen Elizabeth headed a procession of six ships bringing more than 17,000 veterans back from Europe today—veterans who cheered, whistled and threw paper streamers over the side in celebrating the Jap offer to surrender and boomed officers who were given priority in leaving the pier.

The troops aboard the Queen Elizabeth had been notified yesterday of the Jap offer through the ship's loud-speaker system and in their enthusiastic reception of the news, ship's officers said, a group of soldiers climbed the main mast and attached a captured Nazi flag, which flew for a time until it was ordered down.

The ship was greeted down the bay by a special boat bearing civilian girl employees of the army port of embarkation and as the huge craft made its way up the harbor scores of vessels saluted with blasts of their whistles. The Queen answered with thunderous blasts.

As the ship nosed into her pier, the soldiers broke into a bedlam of shouts, whistles and yells. Some banged messkits, threw foreign coins to newcomers on the dock and tore up paper and threw it from portholes.

The Queen Elizabeth brought 14,810 passengers, most of whom were members of the Eighth army force. In addition to army personnel she carried 1,085 navy, 443 army nurses, 42 Red Cross officials, 36 civilians, and 1,004 Netherlands marines.

Among the civilians were Vincent Massey, Canadian high commissioner to London, and Mrs. Massey.

Other arrivals were the Brandon Victory with 1,193 troops, the Nicholas Gilman with 419, the James MacCosh with 111, the John B. Hood with 742 and the John W. Brown with 419.

Usher Crown Prince To Fore

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The Japanese people were kept in ignorance that their leaders were suing for peace, but Tokyo newspapers appeared today to be paving the way for a surrender announcement and Nippon's boy crown prince suddenly was ushered into prominence.

Suggesting the possibility that Hirohito's only son, 11-year-old Akihito, is being groomed to succeed his father at some date not too distant, a program of publicity seemed to have been launched in his behalf.

The Tokyo radio announced to the world that Saturday morning newspapers carried pictures of the crown prince and told of his interest—and anxiety over the air raids—in the war.

Endeavoring to picture Akihito as democratic, one broadcast said the boy dressed and carried on the same activities as his classmates at the Peers' school.

"His imperial highness even joins in cleaning the classroom," reported Domei agency.

Ensign James J. He was attached to Fighter Squadron 30 based aboard an Independence-class carrier. (Official US Navy Photo).

He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for the rescue of the pilot and crew of a torpedo bomber. He also has been awarded the Air Medal.

Highlights of Tour
The highlight of Fighting Squadron 30's recent tour was when 14 of its pilots intercepted an attacking group of Jap suicide planes off Okinawa and, in a 30-minute aerial slugfest, downed 47 enemy fighters and bombers.

Flying Hellcats from an Independence-class support carrier, Fighting Squadron 30 piled up an enviable record of successful operations against enemy air and sea power. They sank 11 ships, including a destroyer and one Naval escort vessel, while damaging 46 others, including a light cruiser, two submarines, a destroyer and three escort vessels.

An integral part of Vice Admiral Marc A. Mitscher's task force, Fighting 30 also rode out with its carrier the typhoon which caught attacking units of the Allied fleet off the Jap home islands.

Ens. Noel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Noel of Knob Noster. He attended CMSTC, Warrensburg. His brother, Albert, is a sergeant in the Army Air Forces.

Attention Please! The project which at the moment is occupying the attention of the chairman of sewed garments, Mrs. A. L. Lacer, is baby shirts. Work is going along, but not fast enough to assure the completion of the shirts by the middle of September. So we are asking for more volunteer sewers. We feel certain that all the Sedalia women whose skillful fingers have helped other assignments to completion in record time will volunteer their services for this present assignment. Please call Mrs. Lacer, 1979.

The Summer Playground Activity Ends

Program This Year Has Been Successful In Every Department

The past week witnessed the close of the Board of Education's summer playground program. From a standpoint of varied activities and participation the program proved to be a successful one.

Always the outstanding activity from a spectator standpoint is the annual Twilight softball league. This year's league was no exception even though the Missouri Pacific Eagles outclassed all opposition and remained the stand-out team throughout the summer. The schedule this summer was divided into two rounds.

The Eagles went through the first round undefeated, having only one close call, their 4 to 3 victory over Montgomery Ward. The standing at the end of the first round:

	Won	Lost
Missouri Pacific Eagles	4	0
Sacred Heart	2	1
SAAF Officers	2	1
Rosenthal's	1	3
Montgomery Ward	0	3

The Eagles dropped out of the second round due to their many other baseball activities and Montgomery Ward had a sudden reversal of form to win three straight games and take the second round title.

The standing at the end of the second round:

	Won	Lost
Montgomery Ward	3	0
Sacred Heart	2	2
SAAF Officers	2	2
Rosenthal's	1	3

In the playoff game the Eagles smothered the Montgomery Ward team to easily win the city softball championship.

Boy Scout League

One of the new activities sponsored this summer was the Boy Scout softball league. This league played its games at Smith-Cotton high school athletic field every Thursday evening with approximately 150 players and many spectators in attendance.

Only registered scouts in good standing were eligible to play and each scout troop participated. Teams were divided into two leagues and the first two teams in each league qualified for the playoffs.

The final standings:

American League
	Won	Lost
Troop 51	4	1
Troop 57	4	1
Troop 54	2	2
Troop 50	2	2
Troop 53	1	4
Troop 52	0	5

National League

	Won	Lost
Troop 50	4	1
Troop 56	4	1
Troop 58	2	2
Troop 63	2	2
Troop 66	1	4
Troop 52	0	5

In the playoff games Troop 56 defeated Troop 51 and Troop 50 defeated Troop 57. In the game for first and second places Troop 56 defeated Troop 50. In the game for third and fourth places Troop 57 defeated Troop 51.

Afternoon Baseball League

Another addition to this summer's program was the afternoon baseball league in which six boys teams participated. Boys seemed to develop an exceptional interest in baseball this summer, possibly due to the fact that the American Legion and the Merchants had highly successful teams.

These teams played a regular league schedule every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons throughout the summer. The final league standings:

	Won	Lost
Knob Hiders	4	0
Pirates	3	1
Coal Chute Sluggers	2	2
Mohawks	2	2
Red Birds	1	3
Gremilins	1	4

Following the regular season a three week tournament was held during which the Knob Hiders again established their supremacy by scoring a 13 to 12 decision over the Gremilins to take the championship.

The two teams composed of boys 12 years old and under were also formed and these teams played a three game series. The Smith-Cotton Midlets won all three of their games over the Coal Chute Dragons. The final game was played at Liberty Park.

Grade School Softball League

An annual feature of the summer playground for a number of years has been the Grade School softball league, with games played each morning at Smith-Cotton high school.

Sacred Heart again won the championship but her job this summer was much harder than it has been in past years. Mark Twain won the first round championship but Sacred Heart won the second round and came back strong to win the first two games of a two out of three game playoff series.

The standing at the end of the first round:

	Won	Lost
Mark Twain	3	0
Sacred Heart	2	1
Whittier	2	2
Washington	2	2
Jefferson	1	4
Horace Mann	0	5

Summer Swim Program

This summer the free swim program was increased from one to two periods a week and the free swim and free swimming lessons were open to all each Monday and Friday afternoons.

The total attendance passed the 2000 mark and 62 boys and girls

Versailles Vs Merchants At Park Today

Teams Met In The State Tournament Sedalia Won 4-3

One of the best games of the season is in store for baseball fans this afternoon on the Liberty Park diamond when the Sedalia Merchants clash with the Versailles Merchants in a game that promises lots of action.

Last year Bobby Brunkhorst, the Versailles left hand star pitcher, hurled a no-hit game against the Merchants and this year in the Missouri State Tournament in Kansas City the Sedalians nosed out to Versailles club 4 to 3 scoring four runs in the last inning of reason to play some real baseball this afternoon.

Lefty Hal Green will do the pitching for Sedalia, opposed by Brunkhorst or Skinny White, who has been pitching baseball in the Eastern league after a tryout this spring with the St. Louis Browns.

This should be a real pitchers battle and one that should provide plenty of thrills. John Thomas, formerly a Merchants pitcher who has returned from overseas duty will be in the Sedalia lineup as will Paul Evans another overseas veteran.

The lineups for today's game: Sedalia: Livengood 1b, Light 2b, Evans ss, Ellsworth 3b, Morris 1f, Shirley cf, Williams rf, Norman c, Green or Thomas p.

Versailles: Warneke cf, Cable 2b, Brunkhorst or White p, Kline 1b, Buerke c, McKee rf, Daniels 3b, Thixton ss, Arnold lf.

Daniels, third baseman for Versailles received a tryout this spring with the New York Giants.

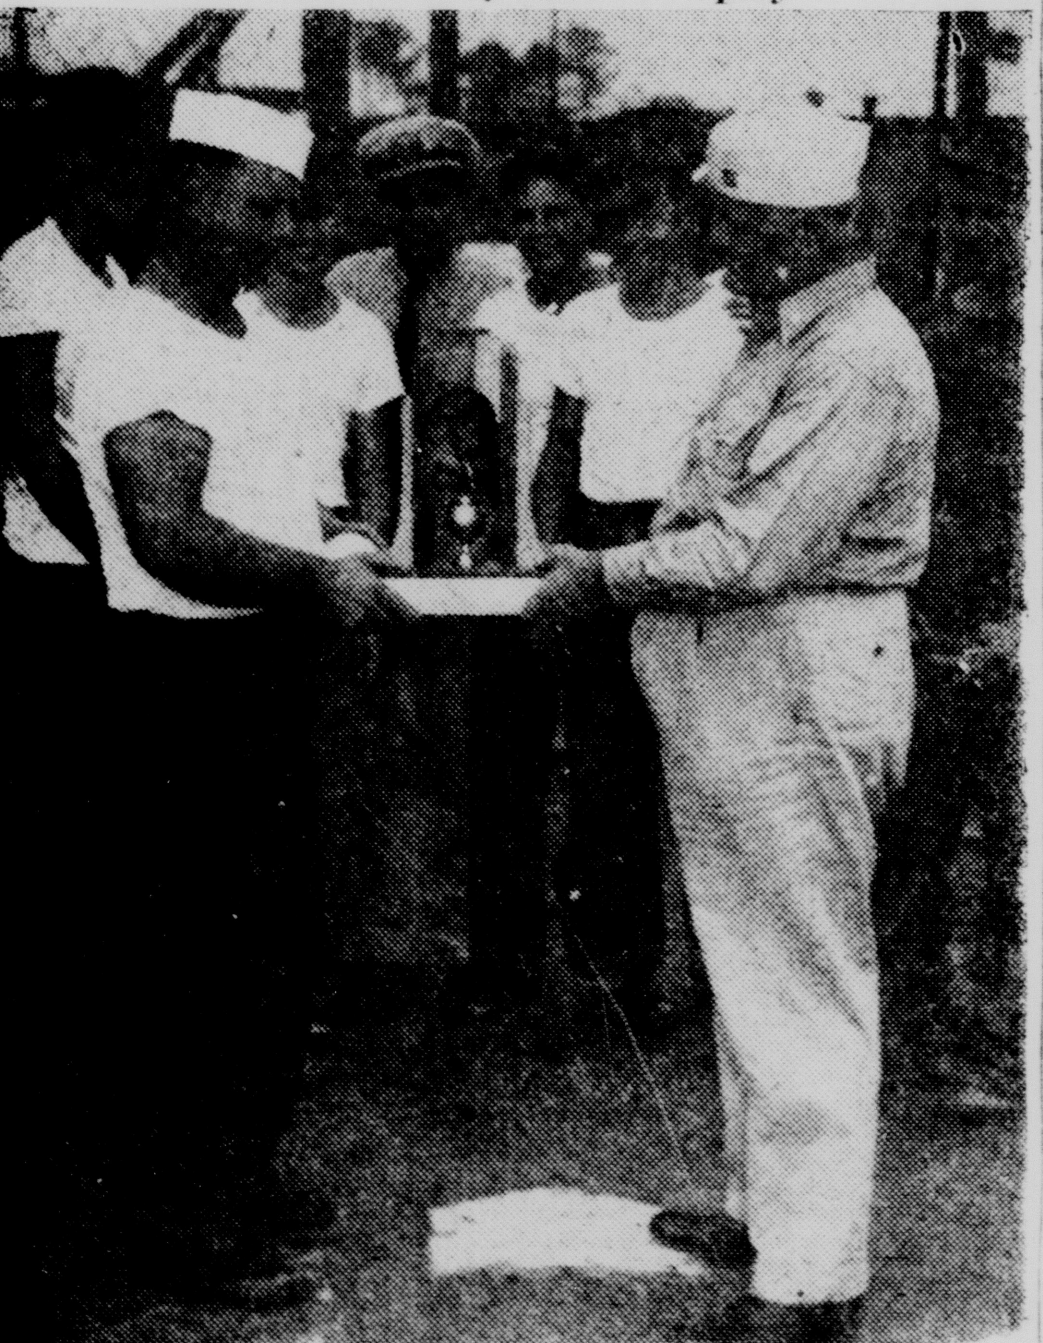

who had been previously registered as non-swimmers, satisfactorily passed the 20 yard swim test.

This part of the program was made possible through the cooperation of Sedalia's P. T. A. organization and Tony Spurlock, manager of the Liberty Park pool.

Three Playgrounds Operated

Three playgrounds were in operation throughout the summer. Jefferson with Ed Martin in charge; Mark Twain with Ralph Dow, Jr., in charge; and Smith-Cotton High School with Albert Steiner as the director.

Vint Siegel Receives Softball Trophy

Vincent A. Siegel S 1 c U. S. Navy, (left) is here receiving a beautiful trophy from Executive Officer E. H. Cole (right) in behalf of the softball team of which he was a member at Little Creek, Va., U. S. Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Training Base. The team won the base championship and of course Vint, former manager of the old Sedalia Merchants participated.

Siegel writes the sports department "Of course softball will never take the place in my heart that baseball does, but for the duration it is better than setting on the sidelines. The team represented the Personnel Dept., finished third in the National League, but won the Shamnessy playoffs, then beat the American League Champions for the base title."

Sport Scraps

(by D. K. SCRUTON)

SOME weeks ago a meeting of a Round Table committee was held and discussed a proposed Memorial to the Men in the Service of World War II, it decided on having a ballot made to be sent to all the men in the service, and those who have recently been discharged, for the purpose of having them vote on a memorial proposal. The ballot, I understand, has been drafted, but as yet hasn't been mailed out or fully decided upon.

But, here is a reminder to the boys, more letters were received by me the past week from boys in the service who are interested in a real recreational program for Sedalia. They heartily endorse a plan for a stadium, swimming pool, tennis courts, and other things that will make a recreational center. The stadium as discussed would be arranged for football, baseball and track.

However, I firmly believe the ballot system is good and I also feel the committee should act on the proposal as voted by the men. After all the men in the service are the ones to be honored, not the people at home and those who want something else.

My latest letters include two from young men who are well known in sports in Sedalia, Vincent A. Siegel, S 1 c U. S. Navy, and Clifford D. "Danny" Van Dyne, RM 3 c U. S. Navy. Both are much in favor of the stadium, and both know what they are talking about.

Siegel's letter in part: "Just a few lines to tell you that I am in favor of your plan for a Memorial Stadium. I don't know of anything better, that could be planned, that the boys would want. Most of the boys are of sports age, and would heartily welcome a sports stadium, in which all forms of sports could be played. Personally I want to be sure it will have room for baseball, as that is, as you know, my favorite. However, it should have room for all major sports."

"In closing, again I tell you I am strongly in favor of your proposed sports stadium. Hoping it is put over."

VAN DYNE in his letter said in part: "I certainly am in favor of the idea of a new stadium in Sedalia. The hometown has needed one for so long now that the boys had given up the hope of ever being able to sit through a game. A town of Sedalia's size certainly should be ashamed of the fact that we don't have one. I believe that when all the men return from the service, steps will be taken to see that a few things pertaining to sports will be taken care of."

Those two letters are only a few which this sports desk has received in the past few weeks since the subject was first brought out in the open by the Sedalia Lions Club.

Marshall in the past few years has reaped a harvest in swimmers from Sedalia, because of their wonderful pool. It was most unfortunate that Sedalia didn't take advantage of the WPA and get one like it, but that is water under the bridge, and it is up to Sedalia to take care of the matter.

SOME weeks ago I wrote the Boy Scouts up in this column, about withdrawing from the Lake of the Ozarks Council, and forming its own Council. I stated at that time Scouting had dropped of 1,000 percent since last February. This statement, I have been informed, is untrue, which no doubt was a little strong. However, I have invited those interested in the opposite side to give me their facts and figures and I will be more than happy to carry them in this column.

Yet, the past few days I have talked with several persons interested in Scouting, some members of the Council, and I find there are a number who are on the Council who haven't said much in meetings that agree with my idea of forming a Sedalia Council while others have another thought.

Personally from what information I have gathered—yes, from some Council members—as well as from persons not connected with scouting but who donate to the cause, a Sedalia Council with the territory from Warsaw to north of Marshall would still be a good idea.

right to play in the state tournament a week ago.

Players to make both trips are: Thomas, Tuggle, Livengood, May, Cooney, J. Waters, R. Waters, Walker, Cal Rodgers, Beck, Schumaker, Miller, Momborg, Holst, and Bat Boy McCrary, and Manager William Walker.

The team leaves from Broadway and Ohio avenue at 12 o'clock this noon for the Higginsville trip, and at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for the Jefferson City trip.

Race Horse Disqualified; Riot Begins

Spectators At Suffolk Downs Wreck Judges Stand And Equipment

BOSTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—Spectators rushed the stewards' stand, smashed equipment and set fire to a police motorcycle late today during a fracas at Suffolk Downs race track over the disqualification of a horse.

The crowd was out of hand for more than an hour before police reserves and a detail of navy shoremen cleared the track.

During the disorders all of the glass in the stewards' stand was broken by flying bottles as two of the four officials knelt on the floor, holding chairs above their heads to protect them from flying glass.

Attempts to overturn the tractors used on the track harrows and to set fire to an awning opposite the finish wire were frustrated.

During the disorders, the crowd, without waiting for the horses to come out, wagered $41,614 on the eighth race, final event of the Suffolk season. The sum was refunded, however, when the event was cancelled because Massachusetts law forbids horse racing after 7 p. m.

The fracas began after the stewards disqualified E. J. Daily's Johnny Jr., in the seventh race.

An irate spectator raced across the track and climbed into the stewards' stand to protest.

Policemen followed him and when the officers used force to subdue him, about 100 others jumped the outside rail and began a beer bottle barrage.

Johnny Jr., was disqualified as winner of the co-featured $5,000 commonwealth for lugging in a Windmill, owned by Mrs. T. Haskos and A. Spilios.

Ben Evans Is Opponent For Major Jones

Kansas City Negro Is Heading For The Tops In Boxing

The chance for high national ring rating is ahead for Major Jones when the young Kansas City Negro welterweight faces Ben Evans, Oklahoma City, Tuesday night in the windup bout at Memorial Hall, Kansas City, Kansas.

Already Jones has gained a share of wide attention. The Ring Magazine labeled him "America's most promising young fighter." Henry Armstrong, former triple world champion, asserted Jones had the opportunity to emulate stellar ring deeds of Sugar Ray Robinson. During his spectacular amateur career Jones gained every national championship at stake in Chicago, New York and Boston.

When the Kansas City Negro enters the ring against Evans he will be facing his most experienced and guileful ring opponent. Evans has met the best in his class including Fritz Zivic, former champion; Nick Moran, conqueror of Bob Montgomery; Paul Altman, Billy Deeg, Eddie Better, Manuel Villa and others. He has won 27 of 33 ring verdicts and boasts he never has been floored for even a one count.

The dynamite in the punches of Jones who is known as Kansas City's "stick of dynamite" will be set to explode once the bell rings for their battle Tuesday night.

And supporters for Jones are confident the young ringman will connect for a kayo. In his entire ring career Jones has lost but two bouts and recently evened a score with Willie Russell, Columbus, O., beating the Buckeye Buzzsaw in a sensational Kansas City battle, July 17. Tickets for the Evans-Jones bout are moving at a brisk pace.

Zabala's Debut Is A Victory Over Cards

Dodgers Take Series From Reds And Cubs Defeat The Braves

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—(P)—Adrian Zabala, Cuban southpaw, made a successful major league debut with the New York Giants today by holding the St. Louis Cardinals to six hits and winning his game 10-1.

The Giants salvaged the finale of a four game series with the Redbirds by raking five hurriers for 14 hits, including a home run by Billy Jurges.

Bud Byerly started for the Cards and was relieved after two innings when the Giants converted three singles and two walks for three runs. Glen Gardner, Al Jirisch, Jack Crouch and Tex Creel took turns on the mound, the Giants touching each for runs except the latter, who hurled the eighth round.

Every batter in the Giants' lineup hit safely with Dan Gaddella the most effective, his two singles driving in three runs.

St. Louis' only run came in the third on Del Young's double and Deb Garm's single.

Dodgers Sweep Series

BROOKLYN, Aug. 11.—(P)—Brooklyn swept its five game series with Cincinnati by taking today's finale 5-2 behind Les Webber, who pitched his first game for the Dodgers since his recall from Montreal.

Webber yielded six hits, one of them a home run by Ay Lakeman in the fifth with one aboard to produce all the Red tallies. The Dodgers hit Elmer Riddle freely. Getting three runs off him before he retired in the sixth. Mike Modak and Hod Lisenbee finished for the Reds, with Lisenbee being tagged for the last two runs in eighth.

Goodie Rosen, trying desperately to overhaul Tommy Holmes of Boston for the loop batting championship, led the Dodgers' 10-hit attack with four singles in as many times at bat.

Passeau Pitches A Shutout BOSTON, Aug. 11.—(P)—With Claude Passeau pitching no-hit ball until the eighth inning, the Chicago Cubs beat the Boston Braves today 8 to 0.

Passeau struck out eight men and didn't give a single base on balls as he won his 13th victory of the season.

He pitched no-hit baseball until Phil Asi got a single with two out in the eighth. Then Morris Aderholt, making his Braves debut as a pinch hitter, singled for the only other Boston hit.

The Cubs picked up two runs in the first inning off Bob Logan. Stan Hack doubled and came home on Phil Cavarretta's single. Cavarretta stole second went to two on Masi's error and scored when Vin Supuck fumbled.

The other six runs came in the ninth—two off Johnny Hutchings and four off John Hendrickson. Andy Pafko was hit by Hutchings, then Lennie Rice got his third hit of the game. After Len Merullo received an intentional pass, Passeau and Hack walked forcing in Pafko and Rice.

Sacred Heart Vs Eagles On Monday

The reorganized Sacred Heart softball team under the co-management of Don Weller and Art Spiller, will meet the Missouri Pacific Eagles under the lights at Liberty Park Monday night. The game is scheduled for 8:30 o'clock.

The team has secured the services of pitcher Daspit from the SAAF Gliders to work this game. Daspit is the pitcher used by the Gliders last week when the Eagles won a hard fought contest by a score of 4 to 3.

Using the Gliders star first baseman, Lieut. Downing, the Sacred Heart aggregation is confident with this added strength they will be able to harness the Eagles whose winning streak this year has been outstanding. Incidentally the Eagles have been enjoying a seven game winning streak.

Manager Williams of the Eagles plans to use his ace speed ball hurler Luke Hyatt with Norman doing the receiving.

Probable lineups: Sacred Heart: Downing, first base, Eakins second base, Furnell shortstop, Arbogast third base, Waters short field, Spiller left field, White center field, Lueck catch and Daspit pitch.

Eagles: Livengood right field, Norman catch, Shirley short field, Studer first, Morris shortstop, Hyatt pitch, Williams or Cozard center field, Robert Moran, welding supervisor for the Missouri Pacific with headquarters in St. Louis, was at the shops last week on business.

Roger Stratton, apprentice instructor with the Railway Educational Bureau of Omaha, Neb., was at the shops last week assisting the apprentices with their lessons.

Billy Smith, machinist apprentice, was in St. Louis last week visiting with his father, Walter Smith, employed at the local roundhouse, who was taken to the company hospital.

W. G. McMellen, boilermaker helper, was a visitor at the company hospital in St. Louis last week.

C. R. Kilbury, superintendent of shops, was a business visitor in Kansas City last Monday.

Omar Garrett, coach carpenter, has returned to work at the local shops after being honorably discharged from the Navy. Garrett was in the Ship Repair Unit stationed in San Diego, Calif.

G. D. Bailey, general locomotive foreman, was a visitor in Kansas City Saturday.

C. E. Beasley, production engineer, is spending the week-end visiting with his family in Kansas City.

Thomas A. Herndon Promoted

Thomas A. Herndon, son of Mrs. Thelma L. Jones, 406 West Clay, has been promoted from T-4 to staff sergeant, according to a letter received from him by his mother. This was the first time she had heard from him in three months.

Sgt. Herndon has been in service a year and was in the European area seven months. He wrote the letter while at sea en route to the Pacific area.

The Pyramid of Khufu, at Gizeh, is said originally to have contained 2,300,000 stones, each two and one-half tons in weight.

CO-STARS OF "THRILL OF A ROMANCE"

Van Johnson (that loving man) and lovely Esther Williams, who are co-starring in M-G-M's new Technicolor musical treat, "Thrill of a Romance," at the Fox Theatre. Esther marries a millionaire who leaves her alone on their honeymoon to put over a big business deal—and along comes Van!

Despite Joan Leslie's apparent sympathy, Fred MacMurray seems to be tired of it all in "Where Do We Go From Here?" the hilarious 20th Century-Fox madcap Technicolor musical opening today at the Liberty Theatre. A bewildered and frustrated 4-F who could never get beyond washing dishes in the local U.S.O., MacMurray finds himself (thanks to the good intentions of an unpredictable genie) whirling through time and space in search of a uniform—and love.

Tuberculosis Test Free

The Pettis county tuberculosis association announces that free chest X-ray will be taken at the Missouri State Fair which will be held August 19 to 26. The film used will be 35 millimeter.

Word has been received from Dr. F. Kenneth Albrecht, surgeon, U. S. Public Health Service, that the state board of health through the courtesy of the U. S. Public Health Service will offer the free 35 mm X-rays of the chest to all persons over 16 years of age attending the fair who desire to have such films made.

Reports on readings of the films will be sent to the family physician of the individual.

This is considered an unusual opportunity the local association emphasizes.

LISTEN!
by Jim Carson

ASK THE HOMEMAKERS, "WHO IS TERRY McGRATH?" From one you'll probably hear, "Terry is Betty Parker's base-voiced assistant in the 'Happy Kitchen' (KMBC, weekdays, 9:30 a.m.)."

Or another might say, "Why, I hear Terry McGrath every morning now, introducing Caroline Ellis at 8:30." And like as not, grateful mothers from every side will reply, "Do I know Terry McGrath? I should say I do. He's the KMBC announcer who brought me news about that boy of mine in the service." (Salute to the Stars and Stripes—7:45 a.m.)

TERRY IS A PRODUCT OF THE HEART OF AMERICA ITSELF. He hails from St. Joseph, where he attended Christian Brothers high school. We still laugh at the story we sometime ago heard about Terry in those early high school days. Terry, we understand, was the scourge of the family's limousine when he invariably followed it downtown in his rattle-trap Model T—typically adorned with the usual schoolboy scribbles.

ARY OF 1943, TERRY PUT ON A UNIFORM FOR Uncle Sam, working in the S-2 or Intelligence office—sometimes commonly referred to as "Public Relations." As you possibly know, Terry uses his voice for more purposes than just announcing. He has established quite a name for himself in the singing profession, having held down a key spot in a network chorus which was under national sponsorship by a well-known auto manufacturer, whom we previously mentioned Terry represented on the streets of St. Joseph.

TO DATE YOU'VE HEARD ABOUT THREE OF KMBC'S ANNOUNCERS. And by this time, you can probably see they're the "tops" for these parts. Next week, meet David Andrews, a one-man show in himself!

ABOUT THE ONLY THING WE DIDN'T FIND OUT ABOUT HOGS this past week at "KMBC Service Farms" was what to do with the squeal. National farm authorities who came from a dozen or so states, as far west as California, were loud in their praise of the Hampshire Hog type conference at "KMBC Service Farms"—and in praise of the farm project itself. The visitors couldn't get over the farm's studio facilities from where Phil Evans originates his three-times daily farmcasts at 6:15 a.m. and during the Dinnerbell Round-up at noon.

ONE TYPICAL REMARK HEARD WAS, "This is one of the finest farm services in radio—Gosh, how I wish we had something like this back home." Yes, the progress on "KMBC Service Farms" has indeed been great in only two years of operation.

THIS SUNDAY, AMONG THE FIRST TO RETURN from Summer vacations are Ozzie and Harriet. The popular comedy team is back on KMBC at their old time of 5:00 p.m. Sundays. On the other hand, the "New York Philharmonic" has just left for a vacation, with the Columbia Broadcasting Symphony taking over the 2:00 p.m. Sunday spot. Program format will be much the same.

That appears to be 980 from here!

Souvenirs To Wife And Child
Sgt. Lloyd L. Friedly, now stationed near Laon, France, with a redeployment group, has been sending his wife and daughter, of Mora, many gifts and souvenirs—including a German made 30 calibre rifle and a complete Nazi uniform with many medals.
Early in the spring he sent perfume, powder, and ash tray and a hand-made bed jacket for Mrs. Friedly, a dress and bib for his young daughter, Margaret Ann, and a collection of foreign money and pictures of places he has been, totaling about 100. While in Luxembourg, he sent his wife a pair of kid gloves of a quality seldom seen in stores here.
Sgt. Friedly has served in the army since February, 1943, has been overseas since June, 1944, and served with the 273rd field artillery battalion of Gen. Patton's Third Army.
Mrs. Friedly and Margaret Ann have made their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Warnke, during his absence.

Decline Taken On Grain Prices
CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—(P)—General liquidation in all futures today carried grain prices sharply lower in all deliveries. The nearby contracts withstood the selling pressure better than the distant futures.
July wheat was off 4 1/2 cents at the close, while September wheat held its losses to around 1 cent. Government purchase of cash winter wheat supported the nearby contract although it was under selling pressure most of the session.
At one time July rice was off the permitted 5 cents, selling at $1.25 but a rally near the close carried it back to $1.26.
At the close wheat was 7 1/2 to 4 1/2 lower than yesterday's close. September $1.64 1/2. Corn was 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 lower, December $1.15-1.14 1/2. Oats were 1 1/2 to 2 1/4 lower September $2 1/4-1 1/2. Rye was 1 1/2 to 3 1/4 lower, September $1.44 1/2-1.43. Barley was 2 1/2 to 3 1/4 lower, September $1.04 1/2.

Draft Board Gives Aid to War Veterans

Fulfilling An Obligation To Help Find Jobs

Commenting on the Army's progress in carrying out its partial demobilization plans, G. H. Trader, chairman of the Pettis County Draft Board, stated today that his local board is fulfilling its employment obligation to veterans returning to this county, in accordance with the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act, which places much of the responsibility for assisting veterans in finding jobs on the shoulders of the Selective Service System.

Mr. Trader states that inductions are continuing, and are necessary because of the constant need of the armed forces for replacements, but he added, the local board is keenly interested in seeing that returning servicemen are firmly re-integrated in civilian life.

"It is an understatement to say that plans for reemployment of veterans have been made," said Mr. Trader, "for the plans are already functioning."

The following men have been appointed Reemployment Committee members, and have been delegated with the responsibility of assisting the veteran in obtaining reinstatement in his former position, or to extend practical assistance, if he wants new employment: L. W. Richardson, Sam Highleyman and P. Emmet Sullivan.

Should Have Interviews

Whatever his problems or plans for the future may be, the discharged veteran should have an interview with the Reemployment Committee, as soon as possible after he reports his new status to his local board. Even though he may believe he is thoroughly informed as to his rights and benefits, it is entirely possible that there may be some matters fitting his particular case that he has overlooked. The veteran may arrange to meet with our Reemployment Committee members by stopping at the local board office.

These young men were taken away from their families and their jobs because it was necessary to win the war. When they return, it is just as necessary for us to exert every human effort towards seeing that those young men are

Cutlines under the picture were as follows:

"THEY BREAK RECORDS WHEREVER THEY GO. Rowing crews are divided into two categories: 'B' crews are inexperienced. 'A' crews are experienced. But that is a matter of no concern to the 10th Regiment gentlemen pictured above. They went out as a 'B' crew and set a new record of 2:53 shearing two-tenths of a second off the 1944 high mark. A few weeks later, as an 'A' crew, they lopped off two-tenths of a second from that 1944 record, going the distance in 2:47. They were coached by J. R. Souvenirs To Mrs. Rowlette

Pfc. Roland Rowlette, 617 South Lafayette avenue, who is with the army of occupation in Germany, has recently sent a number of interesting souvenirs to Mrs. Rowlette. They include an SS headquarters flag, red background with the white circle and black swastika, a signal light, officers belt, whistle on a chain, three knives, two of them with screwdrivers, six strands of various kinds of beads, gold and pearl bracelet and brooch, gold earrings, uniform buttons and many other articles.

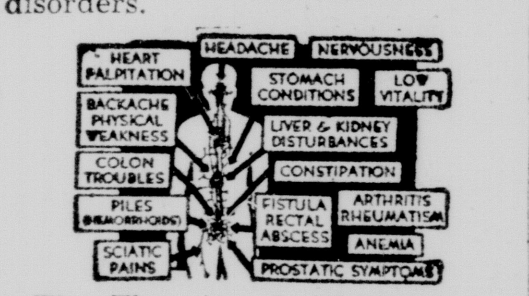

Pfc. Roland Rowlette
Pfc. Rowlette has two children, Frankie 7, and Sandra 2. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Rowlette, 1514 South Osage avenue. He has been overseas ten months, has the presidential unit citation, expert infantry badge, good conduct ribbon, two battle stars and the ETO ribbon.

He writes that he goes fishing "with his rifle," hunts deer, and was in the Harze mountains shortly after Hitler had been there. The people were told by Hitler, he writes, they were to try to stop the Americans at any cost.
